2. Read a passage from chapter 9 of Thunder Rolling in the Mountains, annotating observations and questions. Then, respond to multiple choice questions to summarize the passage, interpret figurative language, and contrast main characters. Finally, using an Evidence Organizer, explain how key evidence reveals Chief Joseph's most important beliefs and values, and how these values guide his actions in the novel.

Socratic Seminars:

1. Analyze the roles that traditional stories play in Nez Perce culture, drawing comparisons between the stories "Coyote and the Monster" and "How Beaver Stole Fire from the Pines" to support responses.
2. Synthesize understanding of how Chief Joseph conveys important Nez Perce beliefs and values in his "Lincoln Hall Speech," supporting ideas with specific evidence from the text.

End-of-Module Task

Write an informative/explanatory essay to explain how Chief Joseph's "Lincoln Hall Speech" conveys two important Nez Perce beliefs and values, developing ideas with specific evidence from the speech.

Word Play

November 8, 2021- February 18, 2022

Essential Question:

How and why do writers play with words?

Core Texts:

CORE TEXTS

Novel (Literary)

- The Phantom Tollbooth*, Norton Juster

SUPPLEMENTARY TEXTS

Comedy Routine

- "Who's on First?", Bud Abbott and Lou Costello

Video

- "Who's on First?"

Paintings

- The Persistence of Memory*, Salvador Dalí

Learning Goals:

- Distinguish between the literal and figurative meanings of words and phrases, and determine their meanings in a text.
- Trace and describe the narrative structure of individual episodes in The Phantom Tollbooth and explain how they function in developing the story's overall plot structure.
- Analyze how illustrations enrich readers' experiences of character, settings, and wordplay in The Phantom Tollbooth.
- Explain how Norton Juster uses wordplay to develop characters, settings, and plot in The Phantom Tollbooth, and infer literal meanings of words through close analysis of Juster's descriptions of settings and characters.
- Determine themes in The Phantom Tollbooth based on how the main character responds to challenges and changes as a result of his journey and experiences, supporting ideas with specific quotations from the text.
- Purposefully structure events in an imagined narrative to create exposition and develop characters, conflict, resolution, and meaning.

Focusing Question Tasks:

1. Write an informative/explanatory paragraph that explains how a character’s perspective toward another character changes through an experience with sport, using evidence from Raymond’s Run.
2. Give a speech explaining why all Negro League players should be honored and remembered on April 15, Jackie Robinson Day, using paraphrased and directly quoted evidence from We Are the Ship:The Story of Negro League Baseball.
3. In small groups, research an athlete who challenged a barrier through sport, and create an exhibit for a “Hall of Fame for Barrier-Breakers in Sports” about the athlete and his/her accomplishments using text, visuals, and multimedia elements.

New-Read Assessments:

1. Read two articles about two Negro League baseball players, then respond to multiple-choice and short-answer questions comparing and contrasting text structures and explaining the function of a conjunction.

2. Read two articles about the Paralympics, then respond to multiple choice and short answer questions, demonstrating the ability to locate answers to specific questions.

Socratic Seminars:

Make connections between the barriers that artists challenge when creating their work and the barriers athletes confront through sports.

End-of-Module Task

Write an informative/explanatory research essay in which you explain how an organization is using the sport of soccer to influence individuals and societies. Create a thesis with two points and use evidence from three sources, two of which are researched on your own, to support your points.
